

IF TAX CREDITS WENT TO DISTRICTS

The state legislature proposed a $55 million increase in tax credits for two programs that provide scholarships to private schools. Education Voters PA calculated how much each school district would get if that money went into basic education funding. Here are amounts for local districts.

Crestwood	$33,881
Dallas	$44,425
Greater Nanticoke Area	$105,491
Hanover Area	$96,244
Hazleton Area	$411,167
Lake-Lehman	$32,887
Northwest Area	$27,090
Pittston Area	$92,677
Wilkes-Barre Area	$493,480
Wyoming Area	$55,579
Wyoming Valley West	$169,491
Total	$1,562,412