dangling pendant lighting; at the bar or one of the high-top tables close by; or at one of a dozen or so tables outdoors. The latter was our seating spot for an early Saturday night dinner last week.

Outdoor Restaurant Dining Tips

Dining out takes on an entirely new meaning in temperate climates or when summer arrives. Rather than being cooped up inside for meals, diners flock to cafes and restaurants that boast al fresco seating to enjoy a bit of scenery and fresh air with their meals.

When the sun comes out and the breezes are warm, blooming gardens and trellis-covered restaurant patios can be ideal dining spots to grab a meal. Good food combined with a hearty dose of fresh air can make everything from a cappuccino to a hamburger taste better.

Considering the best outdoor-dining spots can fill up quickly, and enjoying a meal outside takes a bit of finesse, follow these tips to make the most of any outdoor-dining experience.

Make a reservation

Outdoor seating is not always easy to get. To ensure you will have a spot at your favorite restaurant, call ahead and reserve a table. Otherwise, you may have to wait quite a while for a table to become available or be forced to sit inside.

Scout out restaurants beforehand

If you are hoping to try a new restaurant that boasts outdoor dining, plan a visit to see the layout of the space. Many restaurants, even those without ample outdoor space, cater to the outdoor-seating crowd, even if their outdoor dining area is limited to a handful of cafe tables placed near the curb. Unless you want to spend your meal with pedestrians walking by or inhaling car exhaust fumes, visit the restaurant ahead of time to ensure that the outdoor seating is more amenable to an enjoyable meal.

Choose restaurants with overhead coverage

It is one thing to want to eat outdoors, and entirely another to be subjected to the wrath of Mother Nature. An outdoor seating area should be comfortable, offering the best blend of fresh air and ample protection from the elements. Umbrellas or a covered patio can provide shelter should it start to drizzle or you need relief from the summer sun.

Don't assume an outdoor restaurant is pet-friendly

Just because there are outdoor tables does not mean you can bring your pooch along. If you will be spending the day with your dog and then want to enjoy a lunch or dinner outdoors with your pet, verify that a restaurant is pet-friendly before meal time. Do not leave a dog unattended in a hot car and waiting for you to finish a meal should you discover the restaurant is not pet-friendly.

Check for a dedicated outdoor waitstaff

Unless there is a waitstaff assigned to outdoor seating, you may spend more time than you anticipated waiting for service outdoors. Waiters may not realize you are outside, and it can be easy to forget about patrons who are not seated in the heart of the restaurant. Restaurants accustomed to serving guests outdoors will have staff assigned to outdoor seating areas, particularly during busy times of the day.

Outdoor Dining at its finest

Our newly-remodeled outdoor pub and patio is now open!

All the amenities of the restaurant and pub are now outdoors. Enjoy lunch or dinner from our summer menu while overlooking the scenic view of the golf course. Look for details on live music, wine and beer tastings, and more on Facebook.

The Café - An American Bistro

Dining Outdoors with a Sundae on the Side

1120 Highway 315, Plains Township • (570) 821-5900

The main entrees for our duo were chicken boursin that was breaded, baked and stuffed with an herb cheese filling and the pork filet mignon chargrilled and topped with jumbo lump crab and a mustard cream sauce.

The two dishes were plentiful picks, but were hard to decide upon due to the large menu consisting of fish and seafood, pastas, vegetarian favorites, beef, veal and salads.

The idea of dining outdoors tickled our fancy as well, since it was charming to sit outside with other tables of diners and sip a martini or two.

I chose a signature martini, the lemon drop, made of Grey Goose Lemon, fresh lemon juice and a splash of Cointreau. My dining companion chose the margarita martini. Consisting of Patron and Absolut Citron with a splash of lime juice and fresh orange juice, you can't find a better summertime patio drink.

Unless, of course, you look at the specialty cocktails menu, which includes fun names like Honey Lemonade, Whiskey Vanilla Latte, Apple Crisp and Fire on Ice Martini – all of which would have been fine picks as well.

The outdoor patio is idyllic with its hanging ferns, dangling lights and speedy service. For instance, we ordered appetizers – calamari with marina, Thai chili and roasted ginger with green onion, along with lamb lollipops drizzled in mint demi glaze – which came out quickly and were beyond satisfying.

That may be why the business, operating for more than 25 years under the direction of owner Jeff Woytowich, is so popular.

Besides the dinnertime favorites, lunch is a huge part of what regular diners love – and they can devour that outdoors, too, if they wish.

With soups, salads, paninis, special sandwiches and more, it's no surprise to see a bustling crowd coming in and out of the eatery regularly during normal lunch hours.

And, besides lunches and dinners, the restaurant also offers on-site or off-site catering and space for corporate or more intimate private functions with seating for 18 or 80 people.

With all the offerings The Café has, items as simple as dessert don't get passed by. The Café consistently has homemade deliciousness from coffee cake and chocolate bundt cake to apple pies and cupcakes on hand.

Add a cup of coffee, and it's truly the perfect way to end an experience at The Café.

That is, unless you're one of the lucky patrons sometime who happens to be dining when Jr.'s Ice Cream truck, another Woytowich business venture, arrives honking. The old-school, ice-cream truck is already attracting attention and being booked for birthdays, celebrations and the like.

Four Blooms Restaurant

Beautiful Outdoor Dining at Four Blooms, Drums

668 North Hunter Highway, Drums • (570) 708-2200

DRUMS -- Upon entering the deck I was greeted by the hostess. I arrived before my dining companion and selected a table in a quiet location. It was a beautiful spring evening and I decided to enjoy it.

I asked the waitress, Tracy, what her favorites were and she recommended the seafood and pasta dishes. The menu is extensive and had a wide array of appetizers, sandwiches and entrees. You can order from the outdoor dining menu or from the regular dinner menu and we decided to order from both.

I ordered a glass of Moscato, which was crisp, refreshing and had a great flavor. Tracy suggested a Mango beer for my companion and she said it was not super sweet or overpowering.

The appetizer selection was amazing: buffalo cauliflower, wings, clams, smoked salmon, seared ahi tuna, shrimp, crab cakes, lamb lollipops, mac and cheese to mention a few. You could make a meal out of just appetizers.

We decided on the Buffalo cauliflower which my friend said she had seen on a cooking show and was dying to try it as well as the beet salad.

Some of the salads are priced as half or full so you can share or have as an appetizer.

The sandwiches caught my attention as well. The vegan burger which includes leeks, black beans, quinoa, Jasmine rice, cauliflower and spices is topped with sliced avocado on a vegan roll with cashew cheese. The menu also features club sandwiches, build your own burgers, smoked brisket and a lamb burger with harissa aioli on a pita with tzatziki sauce.

The buffalo cauliflower was lightly dusted and appeared to be lightly fried. This was a healthy alternative to chicken wings and my friend said she could give up wings and eat them on a regular basis.

The beet salad was freshly prepared and the beets were marinated in what appeared to be a champagne vinegar. The goat cheese paired exceptionally well with the arugula since it was light, creamy and not bitter. The honey-dijon vinaigrette and oranges were the perfect complement to this salad.

After we finished the appetizers, I knew exactly what entree I wanted but my friend was still deciding.

I ordered the cauliflower risotto. The roasted parsnips, red bell peppers, onion, garlic, spinach and mushrooms were cooked to perfection. The cashew cheese is what made it the perfect vegan option.

My dining companion ordered something she wouldn't make at home, the butter and lemon poached monkfish. The fish was prepared perfectly and extremely fresh and the quality was apparent. The lemon crema was light and airy and paired with pistachios. This added so much to the taste of the fish and was served over sweet potato puree, which was creamy and delicious.

The restaurant had a separate dessert menu and I was excited to pick out one of their delectable desserts.

I decided on the key lime tart. It was a personal sized key lime tart topped with a toasted whipped meringue and was something you would expect from a five star Michelin chef. The crust was heavenly and the meringue was browned perfectly - a true work of art!

My dining companion had the tiramisu. It was pure decadence and like none she has had before with a hint of coffee and cocoa. The perfect end to the beautiful evening.

We would suggest this restaurant for a date, an evening out with friends or any special occasion. On weekends they have entertainment. The interior is reminiscent of upscale New York bars and restaurants.

The grounds are amazing and it's a great wedding venue or a place for any celebration.

The fresh air and the beautiful landscaping that surround Four Blooms outdoor patio make it a very relaxing place to enjoy your dinner.

La Tolteca Authentic Mexican Restaurant

Authentic Mexican Food at La Tolteca, Wilkes-Barre

200 Mundy Street, Wilkes-Barre • (570) 825-5001

WILKES-BARRE – Last Tuesday night I had the pleasure of dining at La Tolteca in Wilkes-Barre. Despite last week's devastating weather, La Tolteca was thankfully unaffected by the storm.

I arrived with my date around 5:30 and we were seated inside at a booth. Table and bar seats were also available. And how could I forget the outdoor seating? La Tolteca has over 20 outdoor tables and some have built in firepits.

Shortly after arriving we were seated and started looking over the menu. A tropical margarita was calling my name. Made with 1800 Reposado, melon, pineapple juice and sweet and sour - I couldn't think of a better way to relax after a long day at work.

Our server brought us tortilla chips and dip and my date ordered an iced tea along with her entrée - seafood chimichangas, two soft flour tortillas filled with shrimp and crab meat drizzled with a cheese sauce and sour cream with rice and beans.

For my entrée, I ordered enchiladas supreme, a combination platter of sorts, made up of four enchiladas, one chicken, one ground beef, one shredded beef and one cheese. It was garnished with sour cream, lettuce and pico de gallo.

I'm simple when it comes to ordering at a restaurant, but this was a nice way to get a variety of the same kind of meal.

Other enchilada options are available and they all sounded delicious. From enchiladas rancheras, two cheese enchiladas topped with pork confit with onions and peppers to enchiladas Los Cabos three flour tortillas filled with avocado and queso fresco topped with a creamy shrimp and scallop seafood sauce.

Do you want to know the most amazing thing about La

Seafood chimichangas

Enchiladas supreme

Tolteca's combo (enchiladas, quesadillas, tacos and vegetarian) menu? Everything is $15 or less! How could you beat that?

After almost filling up on tortilla chips, dip and our entrees (and my yummy margarita) we were feeling ambitious and ready for dessert.

However, before we could order a Mariachi band came into the dining room and started playing for the entire restaurant. They were so much fun to watch and listen to and after they played a few songs they went from table to table to take requests. It was a unique experience, but we loved it.

For dessert, we ordered an authentic churro cup – a lightly fried churro, rolled in cinnamon sugar and filled with sweet, cinnamon ice cream and toppings. I'm a big churro and ice cream fan, so putting the two together was like a match made in heaven.

If you're hungry for authentic Mexican food, La Tolteca in Wilkes-Barre is most definitely the place for you. Walk-ins are welcome! Take out, delivery and catering services are available as well!

Amber Indian Restaurant

An Authentic Indian Cuisine Experience in Moosic

3505 Birney Avenue, Moosic • (570) 344-7100

MOOSIC - Looking for an authentic Indian cuisine experience? If you haven't already checked out Amber Indian Restaurant on Birney Avenue in Moosic, you should.

Amber Indian Restaurant is a hearty Indian eatery that is known for being a cornerstone in the Moosic community and has been recognized for its exquisite Indian cuisine, excellent service and friendly staff.

As soon as you enter the building, you are welcomed by a beautiful setting of artwork along the walls and a lovely fountain. The tables in the dining room are set up elegantly and decorated very tastefully for the ideal fine-dining experience.

For those who prefer a more relaxed seating area, they also have a lovely bar to sit at to enjoy a nice cocktail.

The menu is full of entrees for every taste bud, whether it's a chicken dish, seafood, or vegetarian option.

The extensive list of dishes represents a modern perception of classic Indian dishes with the use of fresh ingredients and spices only. This is part of what makes the restaurant so exclusive.

Now it's time for the best part: ordering! Being a seafood lover, I couldn't resist ordering the lobster curry dinner. My guest ordered the chicken vindaloo. Both of these dishes were served with a pot of rice. What made these dishes so pleasing were the elegant Indian copper pots that the food was served in. These dishes offer two very different yet equally enticing flavors. I also loved how customizable these dishes were when ordering.

The serving staff, Garry and Tenzin, were so helpful and friendly, and they gave us the option to have our dishes made mild, medium, or spicy. This personalization of the dishes is excellent for those who like to add an extra kick to their cuisine - and for those who can't handle the heat! There are some Indian dishes that may make your tongue burn and your forehead sweaty. This is where yogurt sauce comes into the mix. Our servers brought out their special yogurt sauce to provide us with a little bit of a palate-cooler, so I added just a little bit to my entree half way through. It created such an incredible blend of flavors while balancing out some of the spice on the tip of my tongue. Absolutely delightful!

My guest and I were finally stuffed! These decadent entrees will most certainly not allow you to leave hungry. I was so full that I sadly had no room for dessert, or I would have burst! However, they have an incredible list of choices. Between the rasmalai, the gulab jamun, and the mango ice cream, it's hard to decide which one I will try when I come to Amber Indian next!

Amber Indian is a one-of-a-kind dining experience. The meals, service, and atmosphere were top-notch. Everything on the menu is absolutely worth trying. Check out Amber Indian Restaurant as soon as possible for a great place to sit, relax and savor whatever it is that you choose. You won't be disappointed!

Chacko's Memory Lane Lounge

Brick Oven Pizza, Wings and More at the Memory Lane Lounge

195 North Wilkes-Barre Boulevard, Wilkes-Barre • (570) 208-2695

WILKES-BARRE -- It's time to start planning your summer activities! Have you ever met anyone who doesn't love bowling? I haven't either. It's one of those activities that everyone has experienced and can relate to. In the heat of summer especially, bowling is the perfect way to spend an afternoon or evening with family and friends. That's why Chacko's Family Bowling Center on North Wilkes Barre Boulevard is the ultimate go-to on any day or night seven days a week.

Let me ask you - how many fun activities do you know of that have built-in bars and grills for its customers? Beer or soda, made-from-scratch pizza, or wings with homemade sauces - you really can't beat it! That's why Chacko's features their Memory Lane Lounge, distinguishing themselves as the ultimate entertainment destination. The lounge is a very lively, sport-style area of the bowling alley that is perfect for any group. At the Memory Lane Lounge, you have so many food and drink options to choose from. Between the Gutter Fries, the Denny Stromboli, the Hambone Sandwich, and even the Uncle Joe's Coney Island Dog, there is something authentic for every appetite to enjoy while they are competing to win at the lanes. Of course we can't encourage big betting, but a little "the loser does my chores for a week" competition between friends or family while enjoying some pizza and beer adds a whole new level of fun!

I was lucky enough to go to Memory Lane on a Tuesday evening, and the staff showed us just how noteworthy their food is. My guest and I walked in to the Memory Lane Lounge and were greeted by a setting of tap beers and a whole wall of different drink options. Who doesn't like to start their experience off with a nice refreshment - if you are of age of course! The wait staff approached us with the most friendly expressions. I immediately felt like a regular customer! We went ahead and ordered an appetizer sampler, which consisted of an array of items. They prepared us a basket of various fried foods - banana peppers, broccoli cheddar bites, mozzarella sticks, macaroni and cheese bites, fried pickles, you name it. Every single thing was absolutely delicious! If I had to highlight a favorite out of the basket, it would be the broccoli cheddar bites. They tossed in a hint of bacon into the bites, and who doesn't love bacon?

Then comes the main course. They prepared a pound of their boneless wing bites tossed in their homemade Jack Mild sauce, and it was like nothing I've ever tasted! The flavor of the sauce was so distinctive and incredibly satisfying. The folks at the lounge also prepared their homemade brick-oven pizza. We got to enjoy two different styles of pizza, including a regular pepperoni pizza, which was prepared with the most delectable sauce that made it so savory. Then, the best part. They also prepared us their SPECIALTY Upside Down Pizza! I highly recommend it to those who appreciate a truly unimaginable flavor. It is superior to your average pizza! Make sure to ask the wait staff about this exclusive item, as it is not featured on the menu.

Chacko's Family Bowling Center is not just your average bowling alley. They offer such a pleasurable and lively experience that all ages can enjoy. When you're out bowling with your friends and family and get hungry or want to grab some drinks from the bar, stop into Memory Lane Lounge or download the Chacko's Bowling App for free to view their menu and daily specials! So get the ball rolling and check out Chacko's Family Bowling Center right away. I can guarantee it's right up your alley!

This new sports bar is equipped with 14 flat screen tvs around the restaurant, each showing a different sport game to appeal to all different sports enthusiasts. They also have two pool tables for pool fans to enjoy.

The restaurant offers a classic bar menu. Some options include mozzarella sticks, buffalo chicken fries, nachos, wings, onion rings, salads, hot subs, cold subs, burgers, pizza and cheesesteaks.

They have nightly featured specials for each day of the week.

The specials are:
Monday – wing night
Tuesday- taco Tuesday
Wednesday – meatball subs
Thursday – build your own burger
Friday – shrimp night
Saturday – chicken cheesesteak
Sunday – bar pie

We began our meal by ordering an appetizer to split, which was one dozen mild wings with bleu cheese and celery- a perfect option to pair with our Miller Lite drafts while watching the game. These wings could have been a meal in themselves. They were very large and meaty and served in a tasty sauce.

For my entree, I chose a caesar salad with croutons and chicken.

Since we were dining on a Tuesday, my date took advantage of the daily special and ordered 2 servings of tacos.

The taco platter was filled with 4 tacos in a basket. The tacos were so plentiful, as they were stuffed with beef, tomatoes, lettuce and an overwhelmingly delicious helping of shredded cheese. They were also served with a side of taco sauce. These tacos are sure to be a crowd pleaser!
